COACHING TERMS

To book a session or package, please email team@amandalinettetmeder.com with the session or package you are interested in, when you would like to begin, and if booking a package, how you prefer to pay (in full or monthly installments).

My office will send the payment details for the balance and your first appointment will be scheduled via Zoom, once all details are arranged.

All payments are non-refundable.

Scheduling will occur via email through my office and according to the general monthly timeframes listed above, for best results.

Once payment is submitted for any packages, a (2) week minimum period is requested for Amanda to prepare your materials.

All subsequent sessions after the first one will be scheduled as yours and Amanda's schedule allows, typically Monday - Friday, between 10am - 6pm ET, with some evenings spaces available.

Once a session is booked, to reschedule, please contact us at your earliest convenience to arrange. If scheduling requests are not responded to in (21) days we must skip that month's session.

The end result will depend on your situation, actions taken between sessions, commitment to spiritual growth, and all available resources at our disposal. These are co-creative sessions, meaning there are independent activities to do between our meetings.
